

Water Management Consortium

Planning and Byelaw Officer

Salary - £27,000 to £30,216

Following a recent internal promotion, we are recruiting for a Planning and Byelaw Officer based at the Manby Office. The Planning and Byelaw Officer will be responsible for responding to planning applications, dealing with applications for Section 23 and Byelaw consent in line with the Board's policies and taking enforcement action where necessary.

The postholder will deal primarily with the Lindsey Marsh and Trent Valley Board areas, but will also provide support to the Planning and Development Control Officer (PDCO) across the whole of the Consortium's area.

The skills we are looking for:

- Understanding of the planning process and byelaws.
- Sound technical ability.
- Understanding of surface water drainage.
- Awareness of environmental implications.
- Engineering and surveying knowledge.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Practical experience.
- Well organised and able to prioritise.
- Willing to travel.

An application form, job description, and personal specification can be downloaded from the jobs page of our website - <https://lmdb.wmc-idbs.org.uk/notices/job-vacancies/>.

Completed application forms should be returned to enquiries@lmdb.co.uk.
